

As We Gather

We are on a journey through time and space on this earth until we reach the promised land of heaven.

Our Lord walked this way, and He did it as our Savior. Today we see Him fighting for us in spiritual warfare, victorious over the temptations of the devil.

Paul reminds us in the Epistle that the Word (the strong defense Jesus used) is near us, even on our lips. With God accompanying them on their wilderness journey, the Israelites were promised that one day they would bring the firstfruits of the harvest in the Promised Land.

We can confidently anticipate that joy each time we gather around Word and Sacrament. We know that, because Jesus walked this way, our journey will be secure and complete. ✝
